

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

SPORT EVENTS
AT 14TH WARD

Proceeds of Show to Go toward Fund for New Building

Ten fast boxing contests will be featured on the athletic program at the "Fourth" ward amusement hall on Adams avenue, between Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth streets. The first event will start promptly at 8 o'clock Friday night, Aug. 20.

The curtain raiser will be a main contest between Little Jack Harbertson and Harold Saunders, both fifty pounds and both amateurs. The odds will be as follows: R. Saunders vs. Red Williams; Arle Sandman vs. H. E. Lane; D. M. Anderson vs. A. Nelson; Boyd Heywood vs. Joe Beus. These

FAST PLAY IN SEMI-FINALS

Foutz Sisters to Play Today
for City Title Map Arc

Also Matched

Fast playing featured the semi-finals in the city tennis championship games played on the courts of the Ogden Tennis club yesterday afternoon. In the ladies' singles Naudine Fouts outclassed Gerda Wodraff, 8-6, 6-2, in a nip and tuck contest. In the men's singles, Earl Harris defeated Joe Titley 6-2, 2-6 and 6-2. Edgar Johnston won from Fred Jensen in straight sets 6-3 and 6-2. In the men's doubles Max Johnston and Fred Jensen defeated Fred Johnston and Johnston won handily from

FINALS TODAY.
The finals will be staged on the courts of the club today. Starting at 10 a. m. Miss Naudine Foutz and Miss Angeline Foutz will clash for the city championship in the ladies' singles. The men's singles title will be decided at the same starting hour, when Edgar Johnston and Earl Harrie do battle. In the men's doubles the Moyes-Johnston team will clash with the winners of the Waugh-Jensen and J. Tittle-H. Tittle game, which was OLD-TIME FORM. In the semi-final round in the men's singles, Earl Harris showed from old-time form by leading his opponent, Nat King Cole, by a 6-2, 6-1, 6-1 time frame. Titled by scores of 6-2, 2-6, 6-1 in the first round, Harris, in the second set Titled jumped into the lead and was never headed. He also won the third set 6-1.

Edgar Johnston won from Fred Jensen in straight sets, the scores being 6-2, 6-2. Johnston clearly outclassed his rival at all times, his serves being accurate and his returns deadly.

The Moyes-Johnston aggregation had little difficulty in winning out from the Emley-Hess team in straight sets, in the

The games today will no doubt be attended by a large number of fans, the courts at Polk and Capital avenues being prepared for a good representation.

The courts of the Ogden Tennis club only recently were completed, but despite that fact the players lost no time in getting ready for the city championships. The winners in the three classes to be decided today on the courts of the Ogden Tennis club are:

TENNIS COMES BACK.
"Tennis has come back with ginger galore in Ogden," said Arch Moyes, chairman of the tournament committee last night, "and the members of the local club are eager to

The game register equally with the other well-known sports. In the east and middle west tennis is considered one of the greatest games. It affords pleasure for the business man and in the estimation is one of the best phases of sport in the world. The character of the local organization including women, now number more than 125.

With the interest which has been created in tennis we are now using our efforts to land 180 tennis courts in the games for Ogden next year. This city is out after the games and with our efforts in the care we are sure that we can take care of the various events."

ENID, Okla., Aug. 14.—While stopping here today W. J. Bryan, declared that both the Republican and Democratic candidates in their speeches of acceptance "went off their platform to inform the wets that the law could be changed by congress."

Asked whether he intended to "take the stump" this fall, he replied that he had no plans further than September 1, when he will complete his lecture tour.

VICTORIOUS TRAPSHOT TEAM DINED IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—The American trapshooting team which won team and individual honors in the Olympic contests, arrived today on the airplane. The team was entertained at luncheon by the New York Athletic club. Frank M. Troeh, Vancouver,

After giving the sportsman man and the candy man a breathing spell for a few days, the noble athletes of the Sacramento and Salt Lake clubs resumed their tree-cutting yesterday. Salt Lake had the better of the horse-run bunting and won the game 9 to 3.

Yesterday's victory for the Bees and Oakland's defeat of Vernon give Salt Lake the lead in the series.

George A. Tipling of Cleveland, last night in the second game, suspended for one year, Harry Stokes, driver of Pelham Express and W. N. Milroy, driver of David C., were each fined $50.

Yesterday's success was the first victory for Nick Cullop on the home-ground. Nick almost invariably pitched a shutout or near shutout ball in other towns, but until yesterday a winning game at Bonneville park. Now that he has broken the ice, it is to be expected that he will let the home freeze up on him again.
